WPSS 1661 of 2006

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.

Heard Sir Tanuj Semwal, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Suresh Misra, learned A.S.G. Union of India for the respondents.

Learned A.S.G. has submitted that the grievance of the petitioner has already been redressed as the petitioner has already been granted disability pension.

In view of the above statement, as the grievance of the petitioner has already been redressed, the writ petition has become infructuous and as such the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. All the pending applications stand disposed of.
